WELCOME MESSAGE

Distinguished Guests, Esteemed Colleagues and Friends.

As one of the members of the organizing committee for the World Congress on the Future of Aging- Science, Society, and Sustainability Conference to be held in Prague on the 9-11th July 2025, I would like to welcome you very warmly to this event.

The conference is set to draw upon the expertise of over one hundred researchers, policymakers and multi-disciplinary experts from the field of Aging to delve into the most pressing issues surrounding our aging population, exploring the intersection of scientific advancements, societal considerations, and long-term sustainability.

Our conferences provide you with excellent opportunities to present your work, hear from experts about the latest global developments in the field of aging and most importantly our conferences will enable you to engage in conversation and establish long-lasting collaborations with fellow professionals in the field.

Prague is one of the most beautiful cities on the world and you will the opportunity to not just attend the conference but also explore the city and experience all its traditions and all that Prague has to offer. The culinary delights, the unique selection of beers and the architecture are all very special indeed.

We really look forward to welcoming you at WCFA 2025 and to ensuring that you have a truly unforgettable academic, social and cultural experience.
